The 2011 Reunion

This year's reunion will be held the weekend of July 30-31 at Heimwald Park. More details will follow in the reunion letter in June.

Mid-Winter Board Meeting

The meeting was held Jan. 18 in the Lee Glattfelder room at the Glattfelder Insurance Group building. Seven members attended, three teleconferenced and two asked to be excused. Five were absent.

Judy Martin reported for the Executive Committee. She and Jean Robinson agreed to be co-chairs for the Reunion Committee. The theme for this year's reunion will be "Glattfelders in the American Revolution." Jean will try to arrange for an American Revolution reenactor to be a speaker. (See more on this later in the newsletter.)

Larry Glattfelder Jr., reporting for the Communications Committee, noted that the first bulk e-mailing went out with the latest newsletter and that obituaries have been added to the website. In addition, our web site now displays a reminder that, in accordance with the by-laws, no alcohol may be brought to Heimwald Park.

From the Development Committee, Larry Glattfelder Sr., Larry Glattfelder Jr. and Lori Dudney reported they are producing two DVDs about their 2010 family trip to Glattfelden, Switzerland. One DVD is on the church service and the second on sights around Glattfelden. The DVDs should be available for sale at the reunion, with proceeds going to the Endowment Fund.

Larry Glattfelder Sr. announced that he and his wife, Lois Glattfelder, have set up an endowment fund at Messiah College for student scholarships and that the Association received a letter from the college regarding the scholarships. The recipient must be a Glattfelder descendent and attend Messiah College, or another Christian college.

For the Property Committee, Bryan Miller reported that he is still checking on the price for a new driveway entrance gate to Heimwald Park. He also presented a proposal to allow the Jacobus Boy Scout troop to earn some badges by spending a weekend at Heimwald Park painting the refreshment stand, preferably sometime in May. (Bryan recently confirmed that the scouts will be camping at Heimwald the weekend of May 13 - 15.)

Bryan also reported for the Glattfelder Education Fund and noted that he has received several scholarship applications so far. We plan to award six $1000 scholarships again this year.

Cleaning up

The annual park clean up will be held Saturday, July 23, beginning at 9 a.m. Everyone is welcome to lend a hand.

Revolutionary visitor

Our reunion program this year begins our series on Glattfelders (and spelling variations thereof) that have served in our military in some capacity. This year we will have Dan Roe from the York County Heritage Trust present a dramatic interpretation of a York County resident living around the time of the Revolutionary War. Following this presentation, Dr. Charles Glatfelter will provide some interesting information concerning the participation of some Glattfelders from York County in the war.

Brick Patio

A detailed chart of the brick patio should be on display at this year's reunion, including an explanation of the placement of the bricks. We also plan to put the chart on our website.

The mailing deadline for new brick orders this year is May 10, which allows time for ordering, delivery and placement of the bricks before the reunion in July. Cost remains $75 each (see enclosed order form). All proceeds from this project go to our Endowment Fund. For more information, contact Philip Glatfelter, 430 Charles Circle, Hallam, PA 17406, call (717) 968-4577 or email to glatfelterph@aol.com.

Scholarship

The Glattfelder Education Fund selection committee is currently in the process of reviewing this year's applicants for the Nathan Glattfelder and Ives Bricker Scholarships. The selection committee will be meeting in April to make this year's selections and then announce the winners at the reunion in July.

Next year's scholarship application period will begin in January. However, anyone interested in starting early can request an application by emailing to scholarship@glattfelder.org. Keep in mind that the yearly deadlines will change, but the requirements will stay the same. Bryan Miller will place a current application form on the Glattfelder website (www.glattfelder.org) in January when the new application period begins.

President's Message

Several years ago, long-time Board Vice President Philip Glatfelter II suggested that we have a series of reunion themes to honor the various generations of the family who have served in the Armed Forces of the United States during wartime.

The "stars and stripes of liberty" of which we sing in the Reunion Hymn did not descend from the sky as a free gift. They were earned with the blood, sweat and tears of those who served honorably in times of conflict, and especially by those who gave "their last full measure of devotion," to borrow the words of Abraham Lincoln.

I am pleased to announce that Philip's suggestion will at last be implemented, beginning with this year's reunion when we honor the sons of Casper who served in the militia during the American Revolution.

Next year, we will honor those descendants who served during the War of 1812 – a tribute that will coincide with the bicentennial of that foreign invasion.

In 2013 – the sesquicentennial of the Battle of Gettysburg – we will honor the family members who served during the Civil War.

This year's tribute will be truly revolutionary in that planning is underway for a costumed reenactor from the York County Heritage Trust to deliver historical information.

Do plan to join us as we explore the life and times of our patriot patriarchs!
