

Patricia Folckemer Heathcote
YORK

Patricia "Pat" Folckemer Heathcote, 77, died at 1:00 a.m. Saturday, August 4, 2007, at Rest Haven, York.

She was born August 2, 1930, in Shrewsbury, a daughter of the late Harry H. and Dorothy {Folckemer} Heathcote.

She was a 1948 graduate of William Penn Senior High School and a 1952 graduate of Susquehanna University. She worked as an accountant with the Bendix Corporation. She had also worked for York Saw and Knife, and as Controller at both York Industries and Orville Lauer and Co. Mutual Funds.

Miss Heathcote was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, York. She was a Girl Scout troop leader; a life member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority; a life member of the National 600 Bowling Club; a member of The College Club of York; and the National Association of Accountants, Emeritus Life Associate. She played in tennis competitions, both singles and mixed doubles, from 1957-1970; enjoyed bowling, and found great pleasure in traveling the U.S. and worldwide.

She is survived by a brother, William H. Heathcote, and his wife, Elizabeth of Lancaster; a niece; and a nephew. The family will miss her ready wit and chuckle, and willingness to be helpful.

A memorial service is scheduled for 11 a.m. Saturday at Kuhner Associates Funeral Directors, Inc., 863 S. George St., York (the former Hahn Home) with the Rt. Rev. Barry E. Yingling, Chaplain of The Brunswick, officiating. Visitation will be from 10:30 to 11:00 a.m. Burial will be private in Christ Lutheran Cemetery, Shrewsbury.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to AseraCare Hospice, 44 Bowman Road, York, PA 17404.
