William D. Gingerich

VIOLA, DE

William Donald Gingerich, 78, died Thursday, May 19, 2005, at Bayhealth-Kent General Hospital. He was the husband of Charlotte I. Gingerich for 19 years.

Born in York, he was the son of the late John Elwood and Goldie Shaffer Gingerich.

Mr. Gingerich served his country proudly as a radio operator in the U.S. Army during WWII, and was stationed in Japan. He was part of the Army Air Corps which was in its infancy stage. After the service, Mr. Gingerich went to college and was pursuing a Physical Education degree. With only a semester to go, he left college to pursue a baseball career. He played in the Minor League as a pitcher. He was part of the Chicago White Sox Minor League and part of an Iowa Waterloo team. His greatest accomplishment in baseball was being inducted into the Canada Hall of Fame.

After baseball, Mr. Gingerich went to work for General Motors. Most of his career with GM was with the GM of Canada division. He eventually retired after almost 30 years with GM, at the young age of 54, as a Senior Systems Analyst for the Chevrolet Central Office in Detroit, Mich.

One of his passions in life was fishing. When he was not fishing, he enjoyed gardening. One of his favorite things about fishing and gardening was sharing his fish and produce with his family and friends. In his younger days, he also enjoyed hunting. Another interest of Mr. Gingerich's was volunteering for the Felton Fire Company in Delaware. He enjoyed volunteering his time for the dinners that were served. He enjoyed pouring coffee and conversing with all those that attended the dinners. He always gave freely of his time and talents and will be remembered for his smile and willingness to help others.

Mr. Gingerich was a member of the Presbyterian Church of Milford, and attended the Felton United Methodist Church, Felton, Del. He also belonged to the Harrington Moose Lodge 534.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by two sons, William J. Gingerich of Dover and Robert M. Gingerich of Lowell, Mich.; three stepsons, Ronald R. Voshell of Felton, Del., and H. Wayne Voshell and Darrell R. Voshell, both of Dover, Del.; one daughter, Mary Ellen Doden of Roscoe, Ill.; one stepdaughter, Cheryl J. Hodgman of Felton, Del.; one sister, Lois Wakeland of York; 15 grandchildren; and 10 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents and his wife of 35 years, Joyce P. Gingerich.

Funeral services will be held Monday, May 23, 2005, at 1 p.m. at Melvin Funeral Home, 15522 S. DuPont Hwy., Harrington, Del., 19952. Friends may call Sunday from 6 to 8 p.m. at the funeral home. Interment will be Tuesday at 12 p.m. at Shaffer's Church Cemetery in Seven Valleys.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Felton Fire Company, P.O. 946, Felton, DE 19943.
